The Blue Ridge Mountains Art Association is about to re-open this Summer from the start of a Crazy year that 2020 will always be remembered for.

I just received this from the
BRMAA Photography National Juried Show Committee

"Congratulations! We are pleased to inform you that the following piece(s) have been selected by our 2020 jury panel for entry into the 2020 Blue Ridge Mountains Arts Association National Juried Photography Show:

- Apart from the Crowd
- Broken Bridges
- Golden Vista
- Backwoods Recliner
- Leaving the Swamp
- Limpkin
- On the Lookout
- Peace Offering
- Pretty Perch

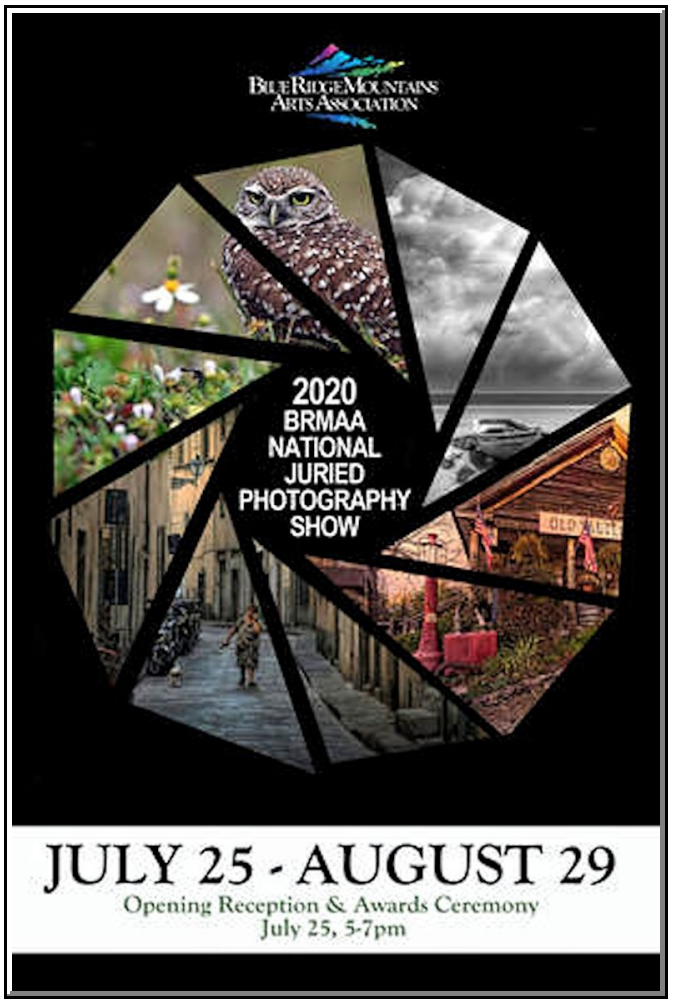
There were a total of 118 images selected by our jury panel from over 190 total entries. Show prizes totaling $3000 will be awarded during the Opening Reception & Awards Ceremony on Saturday, July 25th from 5-7pm at the Art Center, 420 West Main Street, Blue Ridge, GA."



I am very honored to have all 9 of my entries invited to this very prestigious competition at this amazing gallery in this wonderful north Georgia town and Art community.
